DEMOCRATIC newspapers and statesmen who are scolding about Secretary
GAGE'S course in depositing public money in banks are omitting to say a word about the fact that this course was followed under Democratic Administration, and that they had no occasion to find fault with it then. Of course, their attack is merely a political one and for political purposes. If the Secretary were to carry out their plan he would be compelled to pile up in the Treasury the surplus which the successful rerenue law is now bringing in, thus reducing the amount of money in circulation, for all of which, of course, he would again subject himself to the criticism of people whose sole occupation it is to find fault with the Administration. s followed under Democratic Admin-

ONE by one the roses lath, and no by one the late organs of Goerla are descring his rotten cause. The Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, the leading Democratic paper of that section, pours the following hot shot into the ranks of the Goebelites in its leading editorial on the contest. It says:

"When the State Board gave the certificates to TAYLOR and his ticket, Mr. GOERLA and the Democratic party should have been satisfied and submitted gracefully. It is preposterous, mitted all the fraud when the Democrats had all the opportunity."

The Sentinel-Democrat supported Mr. GOERLA before the nomination and after, and knows when it has had enough, and draws the line at continuing to support a man whom the people have repudiated and who cares so little for their verdict that he would reverse the usual order and have would reverse the usual order and have would reverse the usual order and have the minority rule.

Some Vryheid burghers from the outposts on the highest hills of the Spion Kop group rushed into the laager saying that the kop was lost and that the English had taken it. Re-enforcements were ordered up, but nothing could be done for some time, the hill being enveloped in thick mist.
At dawn the Heidelberg and Carolian contingents, supplemented from
